

Sprinkles Thing

The Bluegrass Club is back with the biggest party of the spring Healey season. After a year hiatus we are dusting off our old tricks to put together a fun and memorable weekend for all our Healey friends.

Each year we are thrilled to welcome friends, old and new, to Bluegrass country to share in friendship, food, beautiful sites and once-in-a-lifetime access to some of the areas most incredible destinations. This weekend promises to provide just as much value and entertainment as years past, with some new offerings and brand new locations, this is not the year to miss this marathon Healey weekend festival.

On Thursday we invite you to the Bluegrass Hospitality Suite, overflowing with food, drinks, games and fun. Get to know some new friends and catch up with folks you haven't seen in a while. Let your hair down as the night is young and the music is playing. We welcome you to join the Loco-Motion train and see how low you can go on the Healey Limbo Line; winner gets bragging rights for the weekend and a special lei.

Friday morning starts whenever you want! That's the beauty of our relaxed weekend schedule. There are plenty of sites to see in the Shelbyville area, or you can venture into Louisville to catch a museum, artist demonstration or partake in the Urban Bourbon Trail. The day is yours. Meet us back at the Colonel's Lady, Claudia Sanders Dinner House for a full buffet of some down-home cuisine. Rumor has it when Colonel Sanders kicked his wife out of the kitchen she decided to start a restaurant of her own to put him out of business. She has more herbs and spices than a grocery store aisle. Put her all you can eat goodness to the test!

Saturday we pack up and venture into the rolling hills of Bluegrass country. Whether you choose to whet your whistle with Kentucky Bourbon, enjoy the majesty of horse country or simply wander through the small towns and shops, the route to Frankfort is yours for the taking. Home to Kentucky's state capital, Frankfort boasts the grave of Daniel Boone and plenty of historic stops. Many a Kentucky Governor has been discredited in the old Governor's Mansion, and the marble steps of the Capital Building have been walked by some of the country's most interesting gun-toting politicians. Enjoy your day, but be sure to meet back at the hotel for Hospitality and dessert during the awards ceremony.

Our brand new locations and renewed energy from Conclave promise to make this a SpringThing not to be missed. Whether you've never attended or you wouldn't miss it, we promise something new and fun for all our guests. Try us on. Give it a try. The memories will last a lifetime and the friends...even longer. It's a uniquely Bluegrass experience!
